Why Dave Ebert?

Dave is uniquely wired to be in front of people, whether speaking the Word of God, sharing his testimony of faith and overcoming depression and suicidal thoughts, or using his love of laughter and improv to help others improve self-esteem, communication skills, or team camaraderie. Have fun while being encouraged in faith and in life. Laugh and learn. Leave uplifted and ready to face the world. Dave loves to use the gifts, talents, passions, and experiences God has given him to improve and encourage people everywhere and in every walk of life.

Who is Dave Ebert?

Based in the Chicago suburbs, Dave is an experienced improviser, actor, speaker, improv coach, and is a credentialed minister with the Assemblies of God. Since 2013, he has performed improv with Well Versed Comedy, a troupe of Christian performers that use comedy to uplift, entertain, and minister to those who need the gift of laughter.

A majority of Dave's performance and improv training came in the world of professional wrestling on the independent circuit in West Virginia, Virginia, and North Carolina. Now, audiences and clients alike can rest assured that chairs are no only used for sitting.

Dave says, "I used to use humor to hide who I was. Now, I use humor to reveal Who He is."

Dave and his team did a phenomenal job keeping my students engaged.
